

A-ha! moments

21st Century Learning through Civic Engagement

Questions

I am glad that this discussion covers the broad sense of civic engagement--formal and informal!

The connections happening across partisan lines for Gen Z young folks is really inspiring and makes me feel hopeful!

The continuum of personally responsible, to participatory, to justice oriented is a helpful change visual.

Use stickie notes to ask questions that pop up! It's easy. Click on this icon -->

Using civic engagement of students as a way to engage families and communities

Teach empathy and service

Is it hard to be non-partisan?

New Ideas?

Again use sticky note or share your favorite resources!

Looking at the Tufts/Circle docs: I really like the idea that part of civics education must include a growth mindset for teachers and students alike!

Put a heart on ideas you like!

Questions and Ideas

Civic Inquiry at Every Grade

What are some instructional strategies to productively support young people as they move from the 'big idea' (human rights declaration) to an achievable project?

Use stickie notes to ask questions that pop up! It's easy. Click on this icon -->

The EAD Teacher

